

Children's Message
6.22.08

Good morning!

I can hardly believe it- but tomorrow is the beginning of Vacation Bible School! I simply can not wait until 9:00 tomorrow morning when 96 children and many volunteers will pour into our church- ready for an exciting week, filled with crafts, cooking, and games as we learn all about Moses.

There are just so many interesting parts of Moses' life and it makes me wonder- is there a part of Moses' life could that we could leave out- but the story would still be the same? I don't know, but I think that's something we should continue to think about as we move through the life of Moses during our week of VBS.

I don't think many of you know that when I first graduated from college I was a high school history teacher. My main focus was American history. And I began each year by asking all the students to brainstorm everything they knew about American history and as they spoke, I wrote each thing down.

So, I think that might be a really good thing to do today. Let's see how much you know about Moses. If you know something about Moses, raise your hand, I'll call on you and I'll write it down. And I'm going to write it down, even if it isn't right.

Okay- let's go- who knows something about Moses?

Nice job-it looks like we already know quite a few things about Moses- that should get us off to a great start tomorrow morning. By the way, is there anyone here who hasn't registered for VBS and wants to join us? If so, there is still plenty of room. There are registration forms outside of fellowship hall on our Moses sign- just have mom or dad fill one out and slide it into my mailbox. And I'll see you tomorrow morning!

Reverend Wiley, will you please lead us in a prayer?
